DOMAINE GILLES JOURDAN

Gilles Jourdan established his own domaine in 1998, having managed the family holdings since 1970, whilst making wine at Maison Albert Bichot in Beaune. The domaine is located in the quiet village of Corgoloin, on the eastern side of the Route Nationale. There are just five hectares, including a monopole, La Robignotte, which is a special sloping vineyard on blue marl.

He makes a dozen of wines in Aloxé, Pernand and Savigny, culminating with two grand crus wines: a Corton and a Corton-Charlemagne (although no Charlemagne was made in 2021). He is a young winemaker, with extensive training abroad, looking at making terroir-driven wines. He is a star on the rise.

OLIVIER LEFLAIVE

In the three decades since Maison Olivier Leflaive was established, it has quietly forged an impressive reputation. Starting as a negociant house, to source wines outside Puligny, Olivier and Patrick have nevertheless acquired pristine vines in prized appellations, along the years, to constitute a 'Domaine Olivier Leflaive'. At the top of these vineyards' holding are 5 plots inherited from the Domaine Leflaive land. These vines are carefully looked after by Philippe Grillet and the wines are made by Franck Grux, with the same attention to details as the other wines. Labelled under 'Récolte du Domaine', this is what we are offering in this release.

DOMAINE JEAN-MARC PILLOT

The introduction to Jean-Marc Pillot came from his cousin Francois Carillon, a dear friend of C&B and one of Puligny's top growers since his first vintage in 2010. Jean-Marc's reputation is very well established. His Chassagne wines, in both colours don't need any introduction. It is a great honour for C&B to represent him in Scotland, Singapore and Hong Kong. He is our first producer operating out of Chassagne-Montrachet. His Saint Romains and his Montagny may still be flying under the radar but should not be overlooked honestly.
